Make energy from wood waste commission told

Energy created from wood waste and the sale of crown land to the public for recreational use were two of the proposals presented to the Haliburton County Economic Development Commission's third 'In Search of Development' meeting at Wilberforce, last Friday evening.

Bruce Gibbs, representing Wilberforce Veneer, told the commission that wood waste should be converted into electricity.

This procedure calls for the wood waste to be made into steam power then into electricity and the power could be utilized or sold to Ontario Hydro, said Mr. Gibbs.

Currently the government is experimenting with this idea in the Hearst area, he added.

"Wood pellets could easily be made by pulverizing the waste and the pellets that come out like dog food," said Mr. Gibbs.

He pointed out that in the future these pellets could take the place of oil in furnaces and would be highly versatile.

"Reforestation, culling and forest management should be practised...it's survival of the fittest and the forests are decreasing every year," he told the commission.

He said the forest management programs carried out by the Ministry of Natural Resources which have been cut back because of government restraints, have hardly scratched the surface.

"In 10 or 20 years, programs like this will be very important," Mr. Gibbs said.

He asked the commission to use its influence to promote funding from all levels of government to help get the wood waste project off the ground.

"Private industry is ready to go ahead," he added.

Haliburton County warden and Stanhope Reeve, Jim Harrison, said he was also going to present a similar wood waste but would omit it and carry on with the rest of his presentation.

He said since most of the water front property in the county was almost exhausted, the government should make crown land available to private owners.

"Most of the land which can be developed is classed non-development because it is crown land," said the warden.

He said this would have a three-fold effect: it would stimulate the economy with the clearing of land, building roads, constructing houses; businessmen would sell products and this would result in an increased cash flow; the development would have an everlasting effect as it would increase the assessment base thus maintaining a stable tax rate which would help offset the increased cost caused by the withdrawal of federal and provincial funds.

Strict controls would have to be administered to make sure the lakes were not overpopulated, said Warden Harrison.

Martin Hoffman, of the Flying Dutchman Carpentry in Haliburton, told the commission that the small businessman needs help but in more beneficial ways than the government is now providing.

"Where is the help from the government, the small businessman now stands alone," he said.

He said when we went to the government for assistance to set up a business one year ago, the government would not help a business investment under $50,000. Since he only spent $30,000 he was left out in the cold.

Jane Heppleston, from the Manpower Outreach centre in Haliburton, gave a presentation on seven viable programs that might be of assistance to businessmen wanting to start businesses.

The programs included wage assistance and tax credit programs.

Representing the Haliburton Anti-Pollution Committee Sonya Holliday-Rhodes suggested that a task force be set up by the commission to investigate all proposals, especially pulp mills and uranium mines.

"We are aware of a need for economic growth, but it must co-exist with tourism and not detract from the county's natural beauty," added Mrs. Holliday-Rhodes.

Giving the next presentation was Bill Valentine, a member of the commission.

He said a few words on stone construction in the area as it had not been mentioned by anyone at the previous meetings.

"Stone is one of our most plentiful resources," then he added "there is enough to support three quarries in the county...and opportunities are endless."

The next proposal, given by Bob Vick, the reeve of Snowdon Township, suggested that consideration be given to a woodworking plant, pulp, pallets and a correctional institute whether it be minimum or maximum.

"Consideration should also be given to the development of the existing natural resources within our area," he added.

Patrick Daniel, NDP candidate for the Victoria-Haliburton riding, presented two proposals, one for the Mountain Lake Cottagers Association and the other one as an individual.

The Mountain Lake cottagers suggested that a list of associations should be made up so these groups could be informed of upcoming events that may involve their interests in the county.

Then wearing the other hat he suggested that all levels of government should be encouraged to help light industry get off the ground.

On the same note he said that cautions should be taken to make sure that industries don't destroy the natural beauty and tourist industry.

Shotgun and rifle range in the making

Haliburton County Marksmen Club have received municipal approval for a shotgun and rifle range.

The range will be located in Anson, Hindon and Minden's gravel pit on the Bobcaygeon Road, just two miles north of Minden.

According to the club, it's a beautiful site with a natural backstop and shots will be in a northerly direction so the sun will not hamper shooting in either the early morning or evening.

The club will be negotiating with the only homeowner in the area and that residence is one mile from the range site.

Now that the club has council's approval, steps will be taken to have the range ready for action in about four weeks, Dr. Jeff Lodenquai, president of the club, told The Times Wednesday night.

The club is also planning to have the range approved for restricted weapon use (handguns and target pistols) by the solicitor general of Canada.

But the range will have to be slightly modified for that use.

The club had two other alternatives to the gravel pit site but it seemed the most convenient at a club meeting a week ago last Tuesday night.

The executive received a letter from George Hamilton, director of the Leslie Frost Centre, stating that a schedule could be arranged for the club to use the centre's range if members were willing to do some maintenance on the site.

"It's very encouraging" said the president adding that one factor against the range was that it was 22 miles north of Minden.

Question was also raised to the fact as to whether the range was approved by the solicitor-general for restricted weapon use.

Although police and conservation officers use the range for handgun matches and other competitions, they are registered restricted weapon carriers and would not necessarily have to shoot on an approved site.

Co-op food is cheaper and tastes better

The Highland Food Club is trying to form a co-op to offer large quantities of goods at cheaper prices.

The group is presently ordering from the Toronto Federation of Co-ops but with more members food could be bought from other suppliers as well.

It costs $20 a family to join the club. This money is used to cover expenses as there is no-profit to the club.

Its main objective is to provide good food at more reasonable prices than in the grocery stores.

The items included on the price list include: refined oil, unrefined oil, pasta, seeds, spices, herbs and extracts, baking supplies, beans and bean products, beverages, cereals, granolas and pancake mixes, cheese, dairy products, flour, fruits, grains, dried legumes, shelled raw nuts, nuts in the shell, spreads and sweeteners.

The foods available are not health foods, they are healthy foods without the common additives, just plain good taste.

The next meeting date will be in the 'coming events' column in the newspapers.

Algonquin Park Master Plan Review

Last week along with Economic Development Commissioner Glen Hodgson we journeyed to Bancroft to attend the Provincial Parks Council hearing on the five year review of the Algonquin Park Master Plan. We are now at the most critical time in the development of Algonquin Park since the Master Plan was put into place just over five years ago. The Park's Council has become more and more aware of the fact that little local input from the communities surrounding the park was received or considered prior to the adoption of the Master Plan. As a result of some very heavy criticism by members of local communities a number of changes are being considered by the Park's Council in the plan at this time. The changes being considered have been published in a book form and the commission is anxious to hear a response from the public on their reaction to the recommendations.

The meeting at Bancroft attracted an overflow crowd of concerned residents. The chairman, in fact, noted that the attendance was greater than at their first meeting which was held in Toronto. This was one more indication that the surrounding communities are very concerned about what is happening to Algonquin Park. It was interesting to note that in the Bancroft area the prime concerns of their residents is about rules of use of the park, since they make considerable use of it for their own recreation. This contrasted with our own concerns that our residents make little or no use of the park since we have no direct access to it, and our concerns are mainly about the impact the park has had on our economy.

Of the suggestions in the review the one concerning us most would be in relation to Clyde and Bruton Townships. There was still some question as to whether snowmobiling should be continued on the Whitney hydro line and Roy Bates was there to argue this point. There is also a suggestion that the Township of Clyde south of the hydro line and all of Bruton should possibly be dropped out of the park and made into some sort of a nature preserve. It was difficult to access the impact of this suggestion since exactly what would happen in these areas following such a move was very vague. The commission suggested it was left vague in order that we, the public, might present some suggestions on what exactly should happen to the area. Some serious thought should be given to this between now and August when the commission will be meeting again in both Huntsville and inside the park. If you have some views on this subject we at the Chamber would certainly appreciate hearing from you.

Optimistic about our outreach office

The Canada Manpower Outreach Office in Haliburton which is sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce was scheduled for its three year review in May, and that date has now been postponed to July. Until that time we do not know for sure what the future of our office is but in the view of its extensive use and its considerable impact in our area we have been very optimistic about the decision that will be reached at that time. To add to our optimism in the Toronto Star on April 20th there was a report regarding the impending closing of the Parkdale Outreach Office. At a meeting in this regard Jack Bush, acting Ontario Program manager, compared the Parkdale office where "job seekers can take a street car to the Canada Employment Centres in comparison to the Outreach office in Haliburton -- which will remain open -- and is nearly 75 miles away from the nearest Canada Employment Centre in Peterborough." This would certainly indicate that our office is to receive favorable consideration in July when the review actually takes place.

We would like to remind everyone, at this time now that summer jobs are starting to open up, to make good use of our Canada Manpower Office. A number of employers have placed job orders there for summer help, including the Chamber, and students and others seeking summer employment should be sure to register so that they are aware of these opportunities as they are made available. Employers should also realize this service can be a tremendous time saver in selecting prospective employees. By placing a job order with the staff at the Outreach Office they will refer only those registrants to you that best suit the requirements that you have stated.

Royal Treatment materials

We have acquired at the Chamber a good stock of "We Treat You Royally" back up materials. We have stickers, banners, buttons, and order forms for more for all of you who wish to get on this very worthwhile bandwagon. This year for the first time the Ministry is emphasising the fact that all out of province visitors may apply for a refund of any 7% Provincial Sales Tax they have found it necessary to pay while in the province. We have a large quantity of brochures explaining this regulation which carries with it an application form for the individual to fill out and mail in to the government for their refund. All merchants should have a supply of these forms and we will be distributing them in our travels. In the meantime if you're passing the Chamber office drop in and pick some up. Let's all treat our visitors royally this year.

Need local postcards

A number of retailers have voiced their concern of the lack of good postcards with local scenes that are available for our area. On doing some investigating the Chamber has located a source where at a reasonable cost we can have printed 10 different post card scenes in lots of 2,500 each. The Chamber is prepared to order these cards and distribute them to our merchants at a nominal charge in lots of 200 each. In order to place this order we must have a commitment first for at least half of the cards. Anyone interested in taking advantage of this opportunity to have a stock of good local post cards on hand for this season please contact the Chamber office immediately at 286-1760.

Check list, make sure you can vote on election day

If you are a qualified voter but weren't enumerated for Canada's May 22nd Federal General Election, you can still get on the voters' list for your polling division.

You can--if you act promptly.

After the door-to-door enumeration of voters is completed, a preliminary list of electors is printed, posted in a public place, and, in urban areas, copies sent to all households.

If you are an eligible, qualified elector, but were missed in enumeration, it's up to you to get your name on the revised, final list of voters.

You can do this by contacting the Returning Officer John Bovie, in Lindsay, who will explain how you may get your name on the list during the revision of the preliminary voters' list. The revising process makes additions, deletions and corrections to the preliminary list compiled by the enumerators, and takes place Wednesday to Friday May 2nd to May 4th.

If you are absent during both enumeration and the revising period, you can have your spouse or a blood relative make a sworn application to get your name on the revised list, but remember, you must contact your Returning Officer before the period of revision indicated above.

It is important to get your name on the list. In urban areas, your name must be on the voters' list to be eligible to vote.

In a rural area, revision is done by the enumerator in each polling division.

If you live in a rural area, but your name is on neither the preliminary nor revised list of voters, you may still vote on election day if you are qualified. At your polling station, you may take an oath that you are entitled to vote and be vouched for by another elector whose name is on the official list of electors where your name normally should have appeared. But this rule doesn't apply to voters in urban polling divisions.

To be an eligible elector in this election, you must be at least 18 years old on or before election day, a Canadian citizen, and be a resident in your district or riding on the first day of enumeration.

$1,500 of goods taken from cottage

Thieves stole $1,500 worth of property from a Little Kennis Lake cottage between April 15 and 28.

A vacuum cleaner, TV, tool box and tools, fishing equipment and clothes were stolen from the cottage owned by Dan Buhl, of Toronto.

The thieves entered the cottage by removing siding off an unfinished portion of the building.

Parents help teachers to help students

Parents are helping teachers to help students to learn at Archie Stouffer Public School in Minden.

Stuart Baker, the principal, told The Times on Monday that the volunteer program is not a new one but it has been expanded recently.

Thirteen volunteers now come into the school on a regular basis to spend time with children who have trouble keeping up with the rest of the class.

"Children don't mature at the same rate as far as learning goes, but they usually catch up at some time," said Mr. Baker.

"One of the main reasons we've expanded the program is in recognition of the International Year of The Child," he added.

Another helpful boost was the forming of the Haliburton Association for Children with Learning Disabilities.

Mr. Baker said the volunteers often work one to one with the children in areas such as reading development and the understanding of numbers.

Presently the program covers students up to grade seven.

One of the children being helped by volunteer Jean Stevens has very limited vision. Mrs. Stevens is helping him to learn how to type so he will be able to put his thoughts on paper with more ease.

Since he began typing in January, a course that is not offered in the public school system, the student has improved a great deal.

"I really enjoy helping him, he's a very good student and he strives for perfection," said Mrs. Stevens.

Sue Sisson and Shirley Bugden are teachers who are involved with the program.

"It gives them that little bit of attention the students wouldn't usually get in the classroom," said Mrs. Bugden.

"The program helps the children and the teachers, too," added Mrs. Sisson.

Although most of the volunteers are mothers, they do not work with their own children or even in the same room where their child is a student.

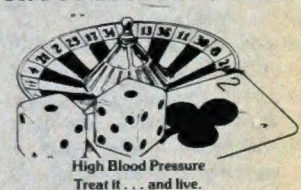

Before the program was expanded parent volunteers were asked to participate in special cases when "major needs arose," said Mr. Baker.

The program ends this month but it will be carried on in September.

$3,700 damage in 2 accidents

A Toronto man received minor injuries when a car pulled out from the Ingoldsby road and struck his car which was travelling east on highway 121, a week ago last Tuesday.

Wayne Shaw, 28 of Toronto, was driving a 1969 car which was damaged to the tune of $1,800 while the 1970 car driven by Daryl Yakeley, 23, of R.R. No. 1 Minden, received $600 damage.

Investigation by Provincial Constable Dennis Potter.

On Thursday, a 1974 pick-up received $800 when a car backing out of a private driveway struck it.

The truck was owned by Donald Graham, of R.R. No. 1 Minden.

The 1974 car driven by Wilbert Dennison, 23 of Minden, was estimated with $500 damage.

Investigation by Provincial Constable Brian Dunham.

Stolen before it was stolen

Although the owner thought a juke box and shuffleboard valued at $2,300 had been stolen they were later recovered in another's possession who was trying to make sure they wouldn't be stolen.

Robert McCullough, of Mountain View Lodge in Gooderham, reported that these items had been removed from the lodge which had been partially destroyed by fire some time ago.

inside reinforcement would take care of the structural deficiency, and sound proofing, according to the president.

Executive member Bill Payne said this location would be something to think about in the future because the curling club would probably be using the rink this year under certain restrictions.

"It would be 1981 before the curling rink would be ready for use," added Dr. Lodenquai.

He said the lawn bowlers had already applied for the use of the rink but the range would not interfere as it would only be used in the winter months and lawn bowling would only be taking place in the summer.

It was decided that the gravel pit was practically the ideal site. Three acres have been staked out by the club. The area is all sand and tundra-type growth with hydro only one kilometer away, if the time comes when the club is big enough to afford a clubhouse.

The next meeting will concern the club's constitution but a date has not been arranged as yet.

Membership forms are available by phoning 286-2001.

Only Fair

Ministry of Transportation and Communications safety checks for vehicles will be conducted in the area this week. And although this subject usually causes a great deal of grumbling by vehicle owners, safety checks are necessary.

Although a car may seem to be in good condition mechanical problems could be arising which the driver would not notice, no matter how mechanically inclined.

But one aspect of the safety checks is annoying

If your vehicle is found unsafe its license plates are removed until it is repaired or if not fixed the ministry will keep the plates to make sure the vehicle is not driven in an unsafe condition.

This is fine.

The problem is, no money is offered to the vehicle owner for these plates which were just bought in February or March depending on whether the vehicle is a car or a truck.

Since license plates are an outrageous price as it is, some sort of compensation should be given to the owner when these license plates are demanded by the ministry.

Some consideration should be given to the private individual who takes his hard earned money to put a license on a vehicle only to have it taken away two or three months later.

Either the ministry should give a refund for the balance of the license or the license should stay with the driver and not the car.

These are the only fair solutions.

No Gold Rush

Presently and in the recent past economists and Canadian citizens alike have been hailing the news that we must be on the brink of depression.

But if you cut off all news from the country and just consider Minden by itself.

It seems to be booming.

In the past few years, a new senior citizen home has been built, new senior's apartment are in construction now, an arena has been built, plans are in the making for a new curling club, additions are being added to local businesses, a businessmen's association has been formed to help improve the down town area and new businesses have opened up.

It's no gold rush but it is progress.

REPORT FROM QUEEN'S PARK

By John Eakins, M.P.P.

I have found that many people wonder about the function of the Ontario Municipal Board, and since many people are affected by it, I thought perhaps it might be of interest if I outlined briefly its history and operation.

The Board was created in 1932 under the Ontario Municipal Board Act which repealed but incorporated many of the provisions of The Railway and Municipal Audit Act and The Bureau of Municipal Affairs Act. The establishment of the Board and its authority is now derived from The Ontario Municipal Board Act, R.S.O. 1970, Chapter 323, as amended. Much of its jurisdiction and authority flows from The Municipal Act, The Planning Act, The Highway Improvement Act, The Assessment Act as well as numerous other statutes.

The Board acts as an independent administrative tribunal and is not an agency or commission. Its function and duties are prescribed by these Acts. When the Board holds a hearing, it is, of course, governed by any applicable statute; but is also subject to the rules of natural justice. The administration of justice could be said to be divided between the judicial arm of government (the Courts) and the executive arm, of which latter the Board is a branch. The Courts operate under strict rules and interpret and follow statutes and precedent. Administrative Boards, such as this Board, administer what is sometimes called discretionary justice, having a minimum of rules and a wide spectrum of discretion. In matters of law and jurisdiction there is an appeal from the Board to the Courts. In the majority of matters, there is an appeal to the Lieutenant Governor in Council.

The extent and nature of the jurisdiction of the Board could be described as responsibility for the sound growth and development of municipalities within the framework of the statutes and protection of private interests as much as possible.

The Chairman has the responsibility of assigning specific Members to hearings. After the hearing has commenced, Members are deemed to be in legal possession of such application. The responsibility of arriving at a decision is theirs and theirs alone. While two Members constitute a quorum to hear and dispose of any application, the Chairman is empowered to appoint one Member to hear and decide an application.

Dear Sir:

On Thursday, May 17, 1979 (7:30 to 10:00 p.m.) the Boy Scouts of Carnarvon, Haliburton and Minden, will hold their 3rd Annual "Festival of Fun", at the Haliburton Highlands Secondary School.

Each year an effort will be made to involve as much local talent as is possible within an evening. This year a number of the performers will be in the Festival for the first time.

Arrangements have been made for individual and group performances, such as: choral, trio and solo singing; numerous acts and skits; band, guitar and mouth organ playing; and gymnastics.

Possibly due to your efforts and certainly to many others, the Festival has always been a huge success. Again, with your help it can be even more superb this year. We shall sincerely appreciate, therefore anything which your paper can do to promote and to attend the Scouts' annual "Festival of Fun". This Festival is a special Haliburton County event in that it brings together the County's scouting groups, talented artists and residents, in an evening of good entertainment and fun.

Since the many performers are providing their services free gratis, there will be no fixed admission charge. However, at the time of the Festival, donations will be received.

This year all proceeds will go to the newly formed Haliburton County Chapter of the Ontario Association for Children with Learning Disabilities.

Thank you for whatever you can do to make the "Festival of Fun" well known and well attended.

Yours very truly,

Festival of Fun Committee
Dennis Baker, Gerry Feltham, Bill O'Reilly, Norm Wallace. (Representatives of Carnarvon, Haliburton and Minden Boy Scouts' Group Committees)

An Even Break

Finally, there is growing acceptance of the idea that Canadians who invest in small business ventures should be given an even break by the taxman.

So far, British Columbia and Ontario have virtually duplicated a magnificent plan developed by Quebec, providing substantial tax incentives for people investing in small and medium-sized enterprises.

Effectively, this places investment in smaller ventures in the same league as the Registered Retirement Savings Plans and Registered Home Ownership Plans that have become so popular in recent years.

In Ontario, for example, may be as much psychological as financial. people investing $1,000 in a small business development corporation - which in turn will buy shares in small businesses with fewer than 100 employees - will receive a $300 cash refund when they file their next tax return.

Hopefully, such activity will alleviate some of the problems faced by independent entrepreneurs when they attempt to raise money for expansion projects, or for Canadians starting new businesses.

What's really important, though, is the clear understanding by three of the country's provincial governments that small business counts. In fact, the impact of the programs are funded by the entrepreneurs themselves, their families, friends, and other individuals in local communities.

It's important to note, for example, that most new small and medium-sized businesses

But the real key to success seems to be community participation in local enterprises.

Until now, many Canadians have shied away from this type of investment, opting for the tax deferrals attached to RRSPs and RHOSPs.

In turn, these savings have, in many cases, been invested in big, publicly-owned companies such as Noranda Mines, Imperial Oil or Bell Telephone. In addition, great chunks of the money have helped finance the giant skyscrapers and shopping centres that dot the Canadian landscape, particularly in our major cities.

The reason for the policy: such investments are (or appear to be) more secure than similar investments in smaller enterprises.

Across the country, though, the entrepreneur's money raising problems are only partially resolved.

The seven provinces which have yet to join the bandwagon, for example, leave both their entrepreneurs and investors at a distinct disadvantage compared to other Canadians.

Fostering the growth of job producing, home-grown businesses deserves the attention of every provincial government. Making it easier to add to our already vibrant independent-business sector should clearly be a top priority issue.

Apply early. Grant funds are limited.

If you wish to employ a young person any time during the program's duration submit your application as soon as possible. Applications are processed as they are received. Deadline date for application is July 3, 1979 or earlier, should all funds be allocated.

Eligible Employers

Good news for Fenelon bowlers

The management at Fenelon Lanes has decided to install all new machines and equipment and to re-surface the lanes. This will greatly improve the bowling conditions for the bowlers. It is hoped that work on this project will commence almost immediately making the lanes ready for the summer bowling and a fresh start in the fall. This should do away with all delays caused by break-downs and serve to let you bowl your three games and be home in better time than before.

The management would like to thank all the bowlers for their tolerance of the conditions this year and the inconvenience it has caused the bowlers.

So all you bowlers in the Carnarvon area, take a drive down to Fenelon sometime in the near future and try out our lanes.

Skating Club Flea Market Coming Up

The final event of the year for the Minden Figure Skating Club is emerging upon them.

Their Annual Flea Market held every year on Saturday of the long weekend in May is held at the Minden Municipal parking lot.

There is always something of interest for everyone. From rummage and household items to home-baked goods and crafts. For the small fry there will be a table of stuffed animals. And if you feel like having a snack, hot dogs and pop.

Donations of any spare items you might find during your spring cleaning would be appreciated. You may call 286-2425 to arrange for pickup. One man's garbage is another man's treasure.

The Minden Figure Skating Club would like to extend a thankyou to our friendly local merchants for their kind assistance to our club during the past year. A special thankyou to all families, friends and others who showed an interest in our club by their support.

To all skaters and parents the Skating Club extends this invitation to get your work shirts on and come to help make this year's Flea Market the biggest and best yet. That's on Saturday May 19th at the Minden Municipal parking lot at 10 a.m. There will be someone there until everything is sold.

KINMOUNT CALLING

By Sam and Margaret Telford

We are pleased to hear that Guy Scott has again been made a director of the local Horticultural Society. This is good news, as he is always so helpful with his plants and flowers and ideas.

We are very sorry to hear that Dianne and Davis Austin will be leaving Kinmount for Toronto in June. It seems such a shame that the Kinmount area cannot offer enough business opportunity to hold a couple of this calibre who could contribute so much to the life of the community.

Fran Crawford is going on a well earned holiday to Calgary this week, and she was so delighted to win the fifty dollar Legion Hockey Pool last Saturday.

The Kinmount Legion Branch 441 held elections on Sunday, April 29th. Assisting were Zone Commander Doug Worrall, Public Relations officer Bill Dermedy and Comrade Alf Lees from Lindsay; Deputy Zone Commander Mel Robertson, and Comrade Marg Robertson from Haliburton. The newly elected slate of officers reads as follows:

President: Alan Brown, 1st Vice President: Bill Lilley, 2nd Vice President: Helen Byne, Sgt.-at-Arms: Charles Cross, Executive Committee: Bert Young, Jim Hockley, Jim Nightingale, Earl Hartin, Norman Gilmore, Norman Silvers, Harold Coulter. Congratulations to all! We wish you a good year.

One Associate Member was initiated at this meeting: Marie Simpson, the daughter of Bill Simpson who died earlier this year.

Membership for the branch has increased 8.6% this past year.

On April 28th, we attended the 97th birthday party of Mrs. Winnifred Bedlington, who is visiting her daughter Mrs. Glynne Lewis near Minden. It was Mrs. Bedlington's delightful book of "Verses" that was published last fall.

April 20th and 21st were reunion days for Sam. Forest Hill Village Junior High School, where Sam taught, invited all staff from caretaker to principal up to the year 1967. This was the year when the Toronto octopus system enveloped all schools within its boundaries, and "The Village" was never the same again. About two hundred attended the party, and there were a lot of reminiscences, a few tears, many laughs, and "You haven't changed a bit!" Margaret was included in this one. The next day, however was strictly for the men. This was to celebrate the 40th anniversary of the Fifth Field Ambulance from Hamilton, which joined with a branch of Royal Canadian Army Service Corps from Toronto to go overseas on November 28th, 1939. Sixty-eight members attended for dinner and talk and tall stories and reminiscences about service in England, Sicily and Italy. The fierce loyalty of war comrades has not subsided over the years, and we quote from a chairman's speech: "It was my duty, my pleasure and my privilege to serve on of the finest fighting forces, man for man, that our war produced!"

That's all for now. Good Night.

3,000 trees for scouting

Minden's scouts, venturers, cubs and beavers planted 3,000 red pine trees on Jim Gilligan's farm on the Scotch Line Road, last Saturday morning.

The trees were provided by the Ministry of Natural Resources as they have been in the past. But this year the trees were planted on private land because the municipality would not guarantee that the trees would not be bulldozed under in the future if planted on public land.

It only took the boys about two hours to plant the trees, with a little help from mom and dad.

The boys have been busy gathering pledges in the past few weeks. The money will be put back into area scouting.

Hamming it up for the camera

Mom gives a helping hand

Helping each other was the name of the game

AUDITOR'S REPORT

To: The Chairman

Galway Cavendish Parks & Recreation Board
Kinmount, Ontario.

I have examined the records of the "Lottery Fund" for the lottery drawn on October 8/79 and in my opinion all monies collected have been accounted for and all expenses incurred have been substantiated by supporting documents.

Dated at Toronto This 29th day of March, 1979 Mrs. T. Brown, Auditor.

Moved by Stuart; Seconded by MacLellan that the minutes of the March 31, 1979 meeting be deferred until the next regular council meeting. Carried.

Mr. Jim Dewey, Brian O'Donahue and Graham Wales, representatives from the Ministry of Natural Resources attended the Council meeting to discuss with Council "Pits and Quarries and Way Side Pits" in relation to the North Kawartha Official Plan and Zoning By-law 78-43. Council was informed that the Ministry of Natural Resources would have their legal department put together a clause to be incorporated into the Pits and Quarries section of Zoning By-law 78-43 that would satisfy our mutual requirements. If this was not possible then Natural Resources would withdraw their objection to Zoning By-law 78-43 with regards to Pits and Quarries.

Moved by Platt; Seconded by Stuart that the minutes of the Galway Cavendish Parks and Recreation Board meeting of March 31/79, be accepted as presented. Carried.

Moved by MacLellan; Seconded by Platt that the Reeve be authorized to sign an application for Experience 79 covering two (2) students over 18 years of age for the period, June 25/79 - August 31/79, to conduct a survey of recreational and parks facilities required in the municipality. Carried.

Moved by Chambers; Seconded by Platt that the resolution passed by Council of the Town of Tecumseh concerning the 48 hour cooling off period during which individuals who have signed an agreement of purchase or sale be allowed to cancel the said agreement similar to that provided under the Consumer Protection Act of Ontario. Details are as follows: "Whereas it appears many individuals who lack business understanding are being taken advantage of by unscrupulous dealers in the Real Estate field.

And Whereas many senior citizens are widowed and alone when they are approached by Real Estate dealers.

And Whereas senior citizens and the public are urged and many times talked into signing documents without benefit of proper advice.

And whereas most individuals especially senior citizens who sign agreements of purchase and sale, do not seek legal advice before signing.

Therefore be it resolved that the town of Tecumseh petition the Attorney General of Ontario to pass the necessary legislation requiring a 48 hour "Cooling-off" period during which individuals who have signed an agreement of purchase and sale be allowed to cancel the said agreement similar to that provided under the Consumer Protection Act of Ontario," and further that a copy of this resolution be forwarded to the Attorney General's Office, Clarke Rollins, M.P.P. and the Association of Municipalities of Ontario. A PENNEY'S WORTH

By Yvonne Penney

I wonder how many people were late for church on Sunday morning. The evenings will be much longer now that we are on Daylight Saving Time.

The grade eight band from Archie Stouffer Elementary School travelled to Bancroft last Thursday to participate in the North Hastings Music Festival. They came home with quite a collection of ribbons - five first place and many more second place ribbons. Congratulations to these young people.

Many familiar faces are to be seen as families return after spending the winter months away from the area - among them - Gordon and Gertie Allcorn, Don and Jessie Barnett, Alex and Mary Stevenson and Anne and Max McKay.

Carnarvon U.C.W. will meet this Wednesday, May 2nd. Dr. Agnes Jamieson will be the speaker and will speak about the new Library-Museum planned for the village of Minden.

SENIOR LEAGUE

by Doris Robertson

Seeing that Monday morning was such a beautiful day we decided to take a picnic lunch and the bus and go over to Wilberforce for a drive. We went into the Wilberforce veneer company and purchased some wooden plaques, then returned home.

Tuesday morning devotion was led by Lil Rawlins, she told us of her personal experience with the Lord, also because it was the last time she'll be here when we hold chapel service, she told us of how she has enjoyed her employment here, we wish her all the best in her retirement.

Thursday was a very special day here. The kitchen staff prepared a lovely smorgasbord luncheon in the dining room with all of the staff, residents, and volunteer helpers in honour of Lily Rawlins, she received many beautiful gifts, it sure was a big surprise for Lil, we're all going to miss her happy face and good-will she brought with her every day of the week. In the afternoon the ladies from Allsaw Pentecostal Church came in to serve the Birthday Tea, they brought lovely squares, cookies and sandwiches and birthday cake. We sure enjoyed them. Birthdays celebrated this past month were Zilphia Hie, Sophia Sanderson, Ann Fountain, Margaret Austin. In the evening the Kinsmen came in to call our Bingo numbers for us.

Friday afternoon we were pleased to have Fred Ballard come in to play the organ for our sing song, we haven't had Fred in to play for quite a while. It was good to see him again, even though it was a fun afternoon it was sad too, as we said our goodbys to Lily Rawlins who has been our Activities Supervisor for nine years, we will be looking forward to having her back in the fall as a volunteer worker.

Saturday saw a fine turnout of Beavers, Cubs, Scouts, Venturers and parents for the annual Trees for Canada project held at the Gilligan Farm. The boys and families planted 3,000 trees beginning around 9 a.m. and when the work was over tucked into a feast provided by Mrs. Gilligan. Thank you Eleanor and Jim - we enjoyed ourselves. Special thanks goes to Scout Leader Bill Beers for his fine organization and the Ministry of Natural Resources for all their assistance with this worthwhile project.

May 17th brings the third annual "Festival of Fun" at the Haliburton High School. This entertaining evening brings together the scouting groups, artists and residents of the County to enjoy themselves and to help raise funds for a County project. This year the proceeds will go to the Association for Children with Learning Disabilities and if this year's festival is anything like the other two - you are in for a most enjoyable evening. The programme begins at 7:30 p.m. at the High School. Make a note of the date time and place - don't miss the Festival of Fun - it's a great opportunity to tune in on the talent in the County.

MEMORIAM

WALTER KEITH - In loving memory of a dear brother and uncle who passed away May 5, 1978.

It's lonely here without you We miss you more each day For life is not the same to us Since you went away Silently we grieve And brush away our tears The memories you left behind Will last throughout the years Your charming ways and smiling face Are a pleasure to recall You had a kindly word for each And died loved by all. Always remembered by Elevean, Doug and family.

Congrats to Lise and Bruce Rockory on the arrival of their baby boy, a grandchild for Anne and John Rockory.

Weekend guests at the Earl Hewitts included Mr. and Mrs. Bud Marks of Thornhill and Mr. and Mrs. Stan Thornely of Scarborough.

Muriel Ewing, Scott and Chris, and Sandra Sears all of Toronto visited their parents over the weekend Mr. and Mrs. M. Sears.

Wedding Bells were ringing for Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Simmerson (nee Audrey Bannon) whose wedding was Saturday with a large crowd enjoying the wedding Dance at Hospitality.

Miss Beverly Ann Prentice was pleasantly surprised by a shower of gifts at the United Church Hall Wed., April 25 and she thanked the ladies present and a social time was had by all.

Bob Guthrie of Bowmanville spent a week recently with Mr. and Mrs. John Rockory.

Hint of the week-Now cook-out time is here, do not use those coloured papers or magazines to start your cooking fire as there is danger from those. Apparently black ink on regular newspapers is safe but there is some substance on these others which is dangerous.

Coming up are the Library-Museum Art Group meeting for the Whole Community at the Municipal Building (upstairs) on Monday May 7th and time for this is 8 at night. Then Nursery Play School welcomes all interested pre-schoolers and their mothers to an Open House at Minden Gospel Church Tues. May 8th from 1:30-3:00 in the afternoon.

There have been Book Exchanges through County Public Libraries the past two Wednesdays 18th and 25th so look in at your branch and see what they have to offer. You don't have to go to the one in your township but can use the one handiest to you.

Heavy frost early Monday morning, sunny for a while but raining now, anyway the grass is getting green. Cheerio until next time.
